Ref: NHIDCL letter no. NH 102 A/ NHIDCL/4/Manipur/ restoration-Civil Work/202 dated 03.03.2016

The National Highways & Infrastructure Development Corporation Limited (NHIDCL) had invited bids for the work, "Restoration/reconstruction of Tadubi to Phaibung Junction from km 25.00 to km 45.00 covering 20km length on Tadubi-Tolloi-Ukhrul Road on NH No. 102A in the state of Manipur". With reference to your bid dated 28.01.2016 submitted in response, it was informed to you that the Bank Guarantee submitted towards bid security as per following details has been found to be fake.

BG No	:	014GT02151932101
Name of Bank	:	HDFC Bank,Thangal Bazar,Imphal
Amount	:	Rs.31,00,000/-
Validity	:	25.01.2016 to 24.01.2017

HDFC Bank, Imphal has confirmed that the BG as mentioned above is fake and as such it has been observed that you have engaged yourself in corrupt and fraudulent practices while competing for this project. You were called upon to explain why suitable action as per the law should not be taken against your firm for providing fake BG in Government Tender. In response to the said letter, you have chosen not to respond and remain silent.

After considering all material facts, NHIDCL is of the considered view that you the above named addresses be banned and are, therefore, hereby banned for a period of 5 years from the date of issue of this letter from prequalification, participation or bidding for future projects of /or to be undertaken by NHIDCL, either directly in your name or indirectly in any other name or in association with any other person/entity with which you may choose to carry out your business. Apart from this, suitable action as per IPC would also be initiated.

Yours faithfully,
